

Teaching Creative Writing in Schools (Informed Teaching Series Book 1)

Are you teaching, or being asked to teach creative writing in a school? Have you taught the subject previously or is this your first time? Have you wondered about key aspects of teaching creative writing and how you might actively develop your current or future teaching of it? Teaching Creative Writing in Schools, by Graeme Harper - well known internationally for exploring both the practice of creative writing and its teaching - explores some key elements of this very human endeavor and offers practical advice as well as some thoughts about how such teaching can best be accomplished. This is a book designed to support teachers, while at the same time suggesting all should feel empowered to participate, teach and celebrate the success of their students. An award-winning fiction writer, scriptwriter and editor, Graeme Harper offers encouragement to all those who seek to practice and teach creative writing.

Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to english so forgive me the dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! Categories Comics Games Playstation 4 Wii U Lifestyle Posted by Joan le Grande in Games, Playstation 4 Leave a comment Tagsexperience, first look, Games, Playstation 4, Playstation VR review, ps4 VR review, virtual reality YES YES YES. I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
