Excerpt from A Brief History of John and Christian Fretz and a Complete Genealogical Family Register: To the Fourth Generation With Accounts, and Addresses Delivered at the Fretz Family Reunions Held at Bedminster, Pa, 1888, 1893; 1898, and 1903, With Portraits and Other IllustrationsThe object of this work is to preserve from oblivion the more remote history of the pioneer ancestors of the Fretz family and their immediate descendants from father to son, down to the fourth generation.It is to be regretted that the records are not more complete. Owing to a lack of interest in the matter, some for reasons best known to themselves, failed to respond to inquiries for information.It is also desirable to preserve in a convenient form accounts of the several Fretz family reunions so far held, together with the addresses delivered that are available, and to collect together and insert all available portraits of descendants of the family.The author acknowledges himself indebted to the many friends for furnishing him with valuable information, and while we express our sincere gratitude to all who in any way aided us, we especially acknowledge our indebtness to those who have very materially aided us. They are Dr. C. D. Fretz, of Sellersville, Pa., Rev. A. M. Fretz, Reuben G. Fretz, and Quincy A. Fretz, of Bedminster, Pa., Dr. John H. Fretz, of Hagersville, Pa., Dr. A. N. I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
