

A German Grammar: Schools and Colleges Based on the Public School German Grammar (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from A German Grammar: Schools and Colleges Based on the Public School German Grammar This book is based, by arrangement with the author and the original publishers, upon the Public School Grammar, by Dr. A. L. Meissner, of Queens College, Belfast (1885), which has attained great popularity in the United Kingdom. In the present book the material thus furnished has been freely used and, where occasion seemed to require, freely modified. The changed title will, to a great extent, explain the scope of such modifications; The term Public School Grammar would seem to restrict the original design to purely elementary work. In this edition the attempt has been made to carry forward the same method so as to include not only ordinary schools, but high schools and colleges - in a word, to prepare a book which should meet the wants of students of every grade - up to the point where the demand arises for the higher study of historical and scientific grammar. This higher study, let it be said at once, is not included in the scope of the present work. In carrying out this design there has been on the one hand much condensation, and on the other much expansion, of the original material. The changes in Parts I. and II. have been both in detail and in arrangement; yet the subject-matter remains essentially the same. The Syntax (Part III.) has been almost wholly rewritten, upon a scale more comprehensive than that of the original work, to meet the more enlarged scope of the present edition. Just what should be here included, and what omitted, is a point on which perhaps no two would agree. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to english so forgive me the dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
