

Historical Sketch and Roster of the Georgia 55th Infantry Regiment (Georgia Regimental History Series Book 84)

The Georgia 55th Infantry Regiment completed its organization at Camp Randolph, Georgia, in July, 1862. Members of the 55th were enrolled from Randolph, Greene, Dooly, Miller, Hall, Walker, Meriwether, Spalding, Coweta, and Gwinnett, counties. The first Commander, Col. C. B. Harkie was not very well liked by any of his men. Most of this regiment were captured at Cumberland Gap and the men sent to Johnsons Island. Those not captured at Cumberland Gap were consolidated into three companies and served as guards at the prisoner of war camps at Andersonville, Georgia and Salisbury, North Carolina. In March, 1865, the detachments of the regiment were ordered to report to General Johnston in North Carolina, but the war ended before the order could be obeyed. I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
