In this Abbey died the famous Cardinal and Legate a latere, Thomas Wolfeyj Archbifhop of York, 1530, in the 22d year of KingHenry the Eighth, and was buried here. The whole hiftory of hislife and death, and his moft memorable actions is exceedingly well wrote by John Stow in his Annals. Without the South gate, Henry Earl of Lancafler, in the 5 of King Edward the Third, founded an hofpical or Bead-houfe for four Chaplains, two Clerks, fifty men and five women, which continues in good ftate to this day, And near unto the fame, f Henry Duke of Lancafter, fon to the faid Henry, built a moft magnificent and elegant College, called, for diftinction from the former, the New Work, which name it ftill bears, for a Dean, twelve Prebends, and certain Chorifters, which, whilft it ftood, was no fmall ornament and beauty to the City: But at the general fuppreffion of Abbies, in the time of KingHenry the Eighth, it was likewife pulled down, and then valued to difpend in yearly revenues 8ool. Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to english so forgive me the dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
