Excerpt from Annual Reports of the Town of Lee, New Hampshire: For the Fiscal Year Ending December 31, 1984 A resident of Lee since 1958, Frank Walden spent most of his adult life in the Massachusetts communities of Salem and Peabody, having immigrated to this country as a young man from his native England in the early 1920s. He retired to New Hampshire after 20 years with the Lawrence Leather Corporation of Peabody. Frank was especially proud of his tour of duty with the us. Navy in World War II, when he served aboard the uss Forrest, a naval destroyer, seeing action in both the Atlantic and Pacific theaters of operation. While in Lee he served as police chief during the 1960s and as a trustee of trust funds for the town. He was an active member of the Odd Fellows lodge; a member and historian of Mitchell Post No. 51, American Legion of Epping; and a member of the Lee Congregational Church. Whether patrolling neighborhoods as police chief or supervising operations at the town recycling center, Frank will be remembered as a quiet but spunky overseer of the community interest. I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
