

Relationships that Fail, Why? From my Point of View.

At some point in our lives some of us have found love. We found that person that we thought we were compatible with and we wanted to take it to the next level with them. We decided we loved this person so much that we wanted to spend the rest of our lives with them. But wait a minute; what we didnt do was make sure that person was really the one. We didnt have a good understanding of what we wanted, what love was, and what it would take to keep that person that we fell in love with. We didnt put in the work to keep our significant others happy and eventually the relationship came to a demise and failed. Relationships that Fail, Why? From my Point of View will give an insight on why our relationships fail, what we need to do to prevent failure, and what we need to do to keep love alive.

I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
