

Practical lessons in the use of English for grammar schools (Hydes series in English)

Pupils who are to receive a more extended course of instruction should have a good foundation laid for future work. The following lessons in language have been planned with reference to the future needs of both classes. Careful attention should be given to the language used by the pupil in all recitations every lesson, in fact, should be a language lesson. But special training must also be given upon certain points. Throughout this work the aim is to lead the pupil to see for himself to cultivate his powers of observation at every step. From the first, the learner's attention is directed to the use of language as the expression of thought. His study is not confined to detached sentences. Selections from some of the best writers are introduced, that, from the study of these selections, he may learn certain facts about the English language, and at the same time form a taste for good literature. Many of the lessons are designed to awaken a love of nature or to deepen some moral impression. (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and do not occur in the book.) Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to English so forgive me the Dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home,

20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
