

Pensamientos de un Corazon Dominicano (English and Spanish Edition)

This book is the product of many years of dating and falling in love. I am one of those old-fashioned romantic guys that think the best way to charm a lady is with poetry.

In my book, some poems are in Spanish while some are in English. However, none is in both because literary works, poems in particular, do not translate as well into other languages. Moreover, I wrote the majority of the poems in my book to girls I had a romantic interest in. Prospect after prospect I kept expressing myself through my poetry. After a while, I decided to collect my poems and to print them as a sign of accomplishment, contrasting my relationships (or lack thereof) with those girls.

It was fascinating to put this book together. I wrote these poems in Moca, Dominican Republic and in Queens, New York. This book encompasses many experiences of my life. Like the time I recited a poem to one of my girlfriends whom I had met in college. She lived in Bensonhurst, Brooklyn and when I would go to see her I would ride the train from Corona, Queens for approximately an hour and a half. One afternoon, we were going to see the Christmas show at Radio City Music Hall and were waiting on the platform for the N train. I pulled a piece of paper out of my back pocket where I had Dream Girl and started reciting it. From the moment I started reading the poem until we got to the Hall I trembled incessantly. My girlfriend probably did not realize the real reason I trembled so much. She must have thought it was due to the cold weather. Actually, I was so nervous and excited that I ended up having that involuntary reaction.

Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to english so forgive me the dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
