

MADEIRA MAPS: FIVE City & Island Maps for Mobile Devices (MADEIRA ISLAND MAPS)

This set of five Madeira Island Maps is especially designed for downloading onto mobile devices: phones, tablets, etc. The maps are just the thing for visitors on cruise liners stopping for the day at the Port of Funchal, capital of the Portuguese Atlantic island of MADEIRA. An average 9-hour stop means visitors can get to know the city centre, relax with a coffee in the Old Town (East Funchal) and check out the city's main hotel zone, west of downtown Funchal. Another favourite area for visitors is Caniço, a 10-minute drive along the coast east of the capital, on the way to the airport. For the more adventurous, there's the Madeira Island Drive & Walk Map, ideal for newcomers who want to stretch their legs and get to see more of Madeira - Pearl of the Atlantic. Since 2000, many hotels and tour operators in Madeira have opted for customised versions of our large-scale, easy-to-read maps. The total print is nearing 1 1/2 million. So a good time to think about reducing our environmental impact, leave forests in peace and embrace modern technology.

Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to English so forgive me the Dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
