Excerpt from The Founding of Exeter School: A History of the Struggle for Freedom of Education Within the City of Exeter

The valuable collection of archives belonging to the Exeter Corporation has yielded in the famous Shillingford Letters a series of documents which throw a valuable flood of light upon the social conditions and the methods of local government that prevailed in this country during the middle of the 15th century. They treat of a legal dispute between the Municipal and Ecclesiastical Authorities as to the extent of their respective jurisdictions within the city. Neither the merits of the conflicting claims of the two parties to the action nor the legal points in dispute have, however, at the present time, more than an academic interest, as the object for which the parties strove has long ago lost its significance, and we can now view the result with indifference. The main interest lies in the personal confidences and the intimate details set forth in the private letters of that worthy and doughty Mayor, John Shillingford, which enable us to acquire a familiar acquaintance with the daily life of the individual actors and steep ourselves in the social atmosphere of the period in which they lived.

Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to english so forgive me the dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! Categories Comics Games Playstation 4 Wii U Lifestyle Posted by Joan le Grande in Games, Playstation 4 Leave a comment Tagsexperience, first look, Games, Playstation 4, Playstation VR review, ps4 VR review, virtual reality YES YES YES. I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
