

Fanology: Create Fans. Sell Books

I wrote this book because I know the principles I talk about work. I managed to have a bestseller on Amazon in the Golf category all about building a more confident golfing mindset no mean feat! This was because I had nurtured and built a fanbase of loyal readers over a number of years, using the principles that I share in this book. Fanology is a word I created that I felt encapsulated the entire process I used to become a successful author and speaker. My background in media and marketing meant that I probably had a headstart on what to try, but it certainly took a great deal of tenacity to follow it all through. There are many unique and easily accessible fan-building techniques in this book for you to try. I've written the book using easy-to-follow advice that enables you to by-pass the many years of trial and error that I experienced. If you're determined to become a more successful author no matter the genre; fiction or non-fiction, then this is the book for you. I hope you find Fanology helps you to achieve the success and book sales you seek. It certainly helped me, and the variety of authors and genres that I now support in growing their own author platform and fanbase. Gail Powell.

Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to english so forgive me the dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
