The aim of this book is to show you how to get started in developing a basic understanding of key aspects of Fijian customs and culture. It is not intended as a comprehensive guide but enough to be able to gain an appreciation of its importance and significance to Fijians. For any one wishing to gain a general understanding of Fijian Culture and Customs, it can be a challenge finding useful information or guide as what to learn in order to be able to conduct oneself when amongst the people of Fiji. As a Fijian, I know I have always been keen to have an accessible handbook from which I could quickly glean and learn the basics about my Fijian culture, especially those elements that form part of everyday life. I have been fortunate to have learned and lived my culture all these years and am now keen to share it with those wishing to gain some basic understanding. In this book I have attempted to bring together and summarised materials that are contained in various publications into one to serve as a guide and handbook. Topics covered include the following: - I Cavucavu ni Vosa Vakaviti - Pronunciation - Vula Vakaviti - Fijian Calendar - Wiliwili Vakaviti - Fijian Numbers - A I Cavuti Chiefly Titles - Na I Vosavosa Vakaviti Fijian Idioms and Proverbs - Etiquette for Visiting a Fijian Village - Useful Resources.
