

First Welsh Reader and Writer: Being Exercises in Welsh, Based on Anwyls Welsh Grammar (Classic Reprint)

At the request of the Publishers of my Welsh Grammar I have now much pleasure, through the collaboration of my friend and former pupil, the Rev. M. H. Jones, B.A., in publishing a companion volume of Welsh Exercises. The great aim of my Welsh Grammar was the presentation of the distinctive features of the Welsh language, interpreted in the light of its historical development, whereas in earlier text-books Modern Welsh had been largely interpreted through the categories of English and other grammars. It is pleasing to note that the older unscientific methods of regarding the language are now gradually vanishing, and it is to be hoped that the present volume of exercises will not only be useful from a practical point of view, but that it will also serve to make clearer still the distinctive structure of the Welsh tongue. In bringing out this volume of exercises, which is the joint work of the Rev. M. H. Jones and myself, I desire to acknowledge in the most cordial terms the admirable help which his co-operation has given me. E. ANWYL. Aberystwyth, 1909. I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
