Excerpt from First-Publication of the Hildreth Family Association: Genealogical and Historical Data Relating to Richard Hildreth (1605-1693), Freeman 1643, Cambridge and Chelmsford, Thomas Hildreth (Died 1657), Of Long Island Southampton We do not hesitate to admit for ancestor research a charm which fascinates the mind and engages the heart. It interests us in village legends, family traditions, and in the memories of old people often wonderfully vivid and accurate. It introduces us to our forefathers, hands us a chair at their fireside, and makes us familiar in their households. And soon we begin to love our stern old ancestors. We study them, their opinions, their hatred of tyranny, those old fellows who called no man master. We who have Hildreth ancestors have learned of their persistent determination for justice, and of their unyielding courage and honesty. And so we seek to know more of them. The Hildreth Family Association has in its possession a mass of genealogical and historical data regarding the Hildreths of America. The largest single collection is that by Mr. Henry Orin Hildreth of Cambridge, Mass., made previous to 1893, consisting of correspondence, individual family records, notes, memoranda, copies of records, etc., but before Mr. Hildreth could arrange it in manuscript form suitable for publication he was taken suddenly ill and died. That was twenty-two years ago. Since then numerous valuable contributions have been made to our Association. A few, such as Arthur Hildreth's Early Hildreths of New England and Brig.-General Philip Read's First Generation of the Name of Hildreth in Middlesex County in Massachusetts, tell of the Hildreths of the early colonial period; several tell of the local branches such as those of Westford, Dracut and Lowell, Mass., Lewiston, Me., Wheeling, W. Va., etc.; many cover individual family histories

as far back as known; and two or three contributions relate to the Long Island (N. Y.) Hildreths; besides which there are hundreds of letters containing more or less detached data. Dr. John Lewis Hildreth, president of our Association since 1893, has contributed a manuscript copy of the Origin and Genealogy of the American Hildreths written by Richard Hildreth, the historian, in 1856. I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
