

Ghost A La Mode

Ten year old Scotts move to Chagrin Falls has created lots of problems and since Malcolm, his house haunting ghost friend left he has no one to talk about it with. His Mom is busy becoming a TV commercial star and the only person willing to talk to him is well one of the most unpopular boys in school. Then it all changes On the wall was a hooded ghost about ten feet tall with sunken eyes and long, knobby hands. I wanted to run away, but I was afraid the ghost would catch me. Who is it? I whispered desperately. Scoooooottttttieeee My mouth fell open. Sco Sco Sco It suddenly sounded scratchy. Like a record player that was stuck in one spot. Then I knew. There was no tall ghost on the wall. I got up and looked at my record player. There was a record on it called Sound Effects for Ghosts. No one had really been yelling Scottie. I have been tricked. By a ghost. Malcolm? I asked softly. None other, came a voice. Long time no see, my boy!

I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
