

Life-Changing: Touched By Cancer

Cancer is a terrifying disease that afflicts millions of people every year. Whether its ourselves or loved ones being touched by this illness, it is always a life-changing experience. Facing the diagnosis, coping with the fear and working on the treatment disrupts everything and makes the future uncertain. Here you'll share the experience of cancer patients themselves and many of those among us who are helping family and friends face the battle with cancer. Stories include: Bald But Beautiful My Seven-Year-Old Beat Cancer Hope Reborn I Will Survive Love Conquers All Twist Of Fate And more. Excerpt: The weight of my grief hit me as I lay down beside her and cried. All the days and nights of worry and fear collapsed on me and I cried with such harsh sobs that I thought I would be sick. I sensed someone in the room with me and I heard Jeff praying quietly. I just lay there and cried while he prayed. I felt an indescribable peace settle over me and I was able to calm down after a while. Then the strangest thing happened. The verse that I had read about the plan for my life popped in my mind. It somehow helped carry me through the next several days. I decided I would believe that God had made a plan.

Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to english so forgive me the dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
