

Indy, the dog: Five accidental adventures

Could you ever have an adventure if all you wanted to do all day was sleep? Yes. But only by accident. And accidental adventures are what the Sparks family dog Indy falls into. In this book Indy accidentally spends a day with train-riding hobos, runs around with horses, plays around at the lake, gets trapped at the county park, and goes on a road trip. But in the meantime, all the Sparks family knows is that their sleepy dog Indy is gone, and that they must find her. These six chapters are especially written for reading aloud to young children. The highly patterned but not repetitive tales create a world and establish a form suitable for spinning your own Indy tales at a moments notice. After this you will never need be caught off guard when your child says, Tell me a story. A new one.

Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to english so forgive me the dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
