Excerpt from A Grammar of the Greek Language: Originally Composed for the College-School at Gloucester in Which It Has Been the Editors Design to Reject What, in the Most Improved Editions of Camden, Is Redundant Among the various Introductions to the greeklanguage hitherto presented to the Public, Wards and the Eton Editions of camden have undoubtedly obtainedthe Preference there being few reputable Seminaries of Education in which one or the other of them is not in Use but. Although distinguished by this general Approbation, they are not free from gross In stances of Redundancy, Deficiency, and Indistinct irrangement. To accommodate the Public with a Grammar, constructed. Tor the most Part, on the Plan of these, but exempt from their Imperfections, has been the Design of the Editor of the fol lowing Sheets Whether he has succeeded in the Attempt, is a Question submitted with much Deference to the Decision of those, whom Experience in the Art of Teaching has qua lified to determine. The Parts, on which most Pains have been bestowed, are, the Declension and Comparison of Adjec tives, the Rules of Augment, and of Formation of Tenses, and particularly those of Syntax and Prosody in all which if essential improvement be not discernible, much Labour has certainly been thrown away. The Grammar is written in English, because, at their Entrance upon the Greek Rudiments, Boys have generally acquired but a slender Knowledge of Latin That time, therefore, which has been usually wasted to investigate the Meaning of Latin Rules, may be now em ployed in the Attainment and immediate Application of such as will be no sooner read than comprehended Of Redundancy in the Grammars above-mentioned, the Oh servations respecting Dialect and Figure introduced among the Declensions and Conjugations is a striking Instance for, if

Knowledge be best attained by gradual Advances, the Tables of the latter ought to have been exhibited in their simple Forms; the Learner otherwise admits into his Idea of each Declension and Conjugation the Dialect and Figure as essential Parts - the View becomes too enlarged for his clear Comprehension, and his Attention is distracted by the confused Assemblage of this Variety of objects - It should be considered also that, in the Greek Books first read at School, Figure and Dialect occur but seldom - The Fourth Conjugation, according to those Grammars, consists of Verbs in nu, ma and cm Those in no and a. In the Future and Perfect Tenses, have the Characteristics of the. Second Conjugation with all Verbs of the Sixth, have the Characteristics of the. Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to english so forgive me the dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! Categories Comics Games Playstation 4 Wii U Lifestyle Posted by Joan le Grande in Games, Playstation 4 Leave a comment Tagsexperience, first look, Games, Playstation 4, Playstation VR review, ps4 VR review, virtual reality YES YES YES. I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
