Excerpt from Lebanon Valley College Bulletin; February, 1955, Vol. 43: Catalogue, 1955-1956; Register for 1954-1955; Announcement of Courses for 1955-1956 Toan outside observer, the history of the College from its open ing by President Thomas Rees Vickroy on May 7, 1866, in a build ing donated by the old Annville Academy and with a student body of forty-nine, might seem to consist merely in increases in the num ber of students, corresponding increases in the faculty, the purchase of new grounds, and the erection of new buildings. But the inner history was marked by a long and bitter struggle against what often seemed insuperable obstacles, a struggle carried on by heroic men and women on the faculty, among the students, and in the conferences. There was, to begin with, the old controversy over the wisdom of providing higher education for the Churchs young people. In the first year of the Colleges life a fierce attack upon the educational policy of which it was the fruit came near to putting an end to it at once. But the conference stood loyally by the institution it had cre ated and fought the matter through, though it meant in the end the dropping of valued members from the Church. Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to english so forgive me the dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! Categories Comics Games Playstation 4 Wii U Lifestyle Posted by Joan le Grande in Games, Playstation 4 Leave a comment Tagsexperience, first look, Games, Playstation 4, Playstation VR review, ps4 VR review, virtual reality YES YES YES. I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
