

Town Records of Derby: Connecticut, 1655-1710 (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Town Records of Derby: Connecticut, 1655-1710I hereby certify that I have examined a transcript of the first two volumes of the Derby Town Records made by Mrs. A. W. Phillips of the Sarah Riggs Humphreys Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and so far as I have compared the same find it to be a very faithful copy of the original, and evidently made with care.To the Town of Derby, Connecticut, belongs the unique distinction of being able to place a seal, if it so ordains, upon what remains to it of its Books of Record from 1655 to 1710 - a distinction conferred upon it through the patriotic work of its local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.In January, 1898, the Sarah Riggs Humphreys Chapter of the above organization resolved to copy the early records of the township, which, by reason of age and usage, were rapidly perishing. To that end the chapter appointed Mrs. A. W. Phillips to take charge of the work, which is now completed and will remain an enduring evidence of the intelligent work performed and the faithful rendering of the copyist.Having examined and carefully compared a considerable portion of the copy with the historic records, I have no hesitation in saying that it is the most accurate piece of work, of like intent, that has passed under my observation, and that I believe it to be a perfect copy. In twenty consecutive pages examined and compared, every word, letter and mark of punctuation had been accurately rendered.The one aim has been to preserve the letter of the records without emendation or translation, and the result is such as should satisfy the most exacting antiquarian.About the PublisherForgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to english so forgive me the dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
