The report of the Committee on Historical Spots was read and accepted. The report was as follows:Gentlemen: - I have had subscriptions amounting to $200, exclusive from what has been done by Mr. Crandall. Of this sum $71.25 has been expended and reported upon. The tablet at Halfway Brook is in place. That for Bloody Pond has been ordered of a Chicago firm and should have been here before this. I submit a blue print of the designs. It is thought better that it be not placed in position until after it is certain where the new State Road will be located, as a change of a few feet in either direction might affect materially the general appearance of the tablet when in position.

Letter from Mr. W. K. Bixby of Bolton Landing, relative to Congressional action on Fort Ticonderoga was read, and on motion, duly seconded and carried, it was unanimously resolved that this Association aid in every way possible the acquisition of Fort Ticonderoga and surrounding battle fields by the United States Government.

The report of the Committee on Membership was read and adopted and ordered filed. On motion the recommendations of the committee were adopted.

I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
