

Matilda Mae: The Dog Who Needed a Name

Meet Matilda Mae, a sweet beagle puppy who needed some help finding her forever home. Her siblings were adopted quickly because of their outgoing personalities and adherence to the standard of what a beagle should look like. Matilda Mae's shyness and quirky appearance caused her to be left behind and eventually surrendered to an animal shelter. Luckily for Matilda Mae, her new friends at the shelter found a loving family to take her home. This book includes 19 lovingly drawn, full-color illustrations. This book educates readers about the issue of homeless pets and animal adoption in a thoughtful and age-appropriate manner. The author will donate a portion of her proceeds from the sale of this book to animal shelters.

Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to english so forgive me the dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
