

Riding School Rescue

One of a series of stories about the adventures of the under-my-feet cat and the right-behind-me dog. They live a self-contained life together in the kitchen of a large Victorian house and are great friends .. The dog has many good ideas which the cat has to temper with common sense. They solve problems together.

Riding School Rescue The under-my-feet-cat and right-behind-me-dog help the catch-me-if-you-can pony to save his owner. The Catch Me If You Can pony (a great friend of the cat and dog) had a secret. Some one had once told him that he was magic.

A few weeks ago a new pony had arrived at the stables so that the owner, Jo, could offer Riding for the Disabled. The new pony was a Highland pony from the Western Isles and was called Skye. However, Skye also had a secret. Being a Highlander from the Western Isles she had the gift of second sight and could see things other could not. Since Skye had arrived and the Riding for the Disabled had started, the CMIYC pony had been very eager to help with the children and young adults and had been rather regretting his previous BAD BEHAVIOUR and had been trying to MAKE AMENDS. He knew he would be good because of his magic. Disabled children in particular would be very safe riding on him. Did he manage to make amends for his bad behaviour and achieve his ambition to help the children learn to ride and how did Sky help Jo.

Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to english so forgive me the dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! Categories Comics Games Playstation 4 Wii U Lifestyle Posted by Joan le Grande in Games, Playstation 4 Leave a comment Tagsexperience, first look, Games, Playstation 4, Playstation VR review, ps4 VR review, virtual reality YES YES YES. I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
