Excerpt from Public Health Bulletin; July, 1913: Studies Upon Leprosy It is quite obvious that small as the percentage is of those who have developed the disease it is not fair to charge all of these cases to infection in the settlement, as it is reasonable to suppose that some of them (possibly all) were infected outside. It is very difficult to determine the incidence of the disease among Hawaiians in general, but probably at least 2 per cent of the general native population of the islands develops leprosy, therefore the percentage (between 4 and 5 per cent) of those who come to the settlement clean and develop the disease is not so high as might be expected. Contacts other than kokuas. - The members of this group are all Caucasians and include priests, Franciscan sisters, brothers of the Order of St. Francis, and others whose association with lepers is of a similar nature. They come into intimate contact with diseased persons in nursing them, in applying dressings to surgical cases, etc. They do not at present live in the same houses with the inmates of the settlement; indeed in most cases lepers are prohibited entering the houses of these clean persons. It is understood that in earlier years some of these persons were quartered in the same buildings with lepers. In this group there were 12 women, none of whom developed leprosy, and 23 men, 3 of whom acquired the disease - a priest (the well - known Father Damien), a brother of the Order of St. Francis, and 1 other person. The time that elapsed after the beginning of their association with lepers and the appearance of the disease was as follows: In one case 3 years, in another 9 years, and in the third 17 years. Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to english so forgive me the dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
