Sprinkled with humour, opinion, and personal experience, this book discusses the uniqueness of community newspapers. It considers that journalists enter the small newspaper market trained only to work for large newspapers; helps journalism students decide if community journalism suits their goals and personality; and explores concerns and means of improvement. It is presented in a manner intended to inform, reassure and reinspire current and prospective editors of small newspapers.

I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
