

Worcestershire Parish Register Society: The Registers of Churchill in Oswaldslow, in the Deanery of Worcester East (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Worcestershire Parish Register Society: The Registers of Churchill in Oswaldslow, in the Deanery of Worcester East The first point of interest about it is that the population is now almost exactly the same as it was in 1562. It then contained 11 families; applying the rule of 5 to a family made it 55. By the census of 1891 the population was 54, in 1901 45, in 1911 65. It might be expected that such a parish would be one of the happy ones that has no history. The Registers, however, give not merely the births, marriages and deaths from 1564, but furnish materials for a very interesting local history. There does not appear to have ever been a Resident Squire. Possibly one result of this is that the same people seem to have gone on living in the parish year after year without change; the same names occur over and over again, until it almost becomes a family history. The Registers have also another point of interest; they continued without the usual break through the Civil War, and this gives rise to one or two special points. Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to english so forgive me the dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! YES YES YES. I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
