

Spanish Stories of the Late Nineteenth Century: A Dual-Language Book (Dover Dual Language Spanish)

These eleven tales are by four outstanding nineteenth-century authors whose work brought new life to Spanish literature. Published between 1870 and 1900, they include El Hechicero (The Sorcerer), by Juan Valera, a highly polished allegorical retelling of an Andalusian legend. Pedro Antonio de Alarcons tale of bandits, La buenaventura, appears with his La Comendadora, inspired by an incident in a Granada convent. Three tales by Leopoldo Alas (Clarín)--Adios, Cordera, Cambio de luz, and Benedictino--exemplify the authors remarkably protean style. Emilia Pardo Bazans stories (Afra, La Santa de Karnar, La cana, Dios castiga, and La Mayorazga de Bouzas) take place in her native Galicia. All exhibit the violence that fascinated Pardo Bazan, along with the independent, courageous female characters who populate her work. This dual-language edition features an informative introduction and ample footnotes, making it not only a pleasure to read but also a valuable learning and teaching aid for students and teachers of Spanish literature.

Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to english so forgive me the dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
