He retired after 35 years of service and started a second career in aviation, earning many licensors and certifications in the field of aviation. His training and love of flying opened up an opportunity to start this new career as an airport manager in North Carolina. Retiring for the second time he traveled in a motorhome visiting all of the contiguous United States. One morning while in Arizona, he woke up from a deep sleep and began writing short stories about a variety of subjects which led him to settling into authoring stories about two dogs, a Jack Russell terrier from the state of New Hampshire and a Chihuahua from Arizona, who from time to time would venture out into the world helping those who needed their special skills. Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
