

Doc The Dog: Critter Tale

Before he was The Ol Rancher he was a young rancher raising and training horses. Long before that he was a boy that grew up around animals of all kinds, horses, cattle, chickens, dogs, cats, even a goat or two. Later in life The Ol Rancher was blessed with grandchildren and a successful business doing petting zoos for children's birthday parties. From those blessings the story teller in him came to life. At birthday parties he would tell the kids stories about their favorite farm animal. Back at the ranch the grandkids loved to gather around him as they roasted marshmallows over a small campfire and listen to stories about the ranch and its animals. As children ate yummy birthday cake or gooey roasted marshmallows The Ol Rancher would spin his yarns and Critter Tales were born.

Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to english so forgive me the dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
