

Catholicon Anglicum: An English Wordbook, Dated 1483 (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Catholicon Anglicum: An English Wordbook, Dated 1483 Mr. J. H. Hessels, who is editing a new and revised edition of Du Cange for Mr. John Murray, has pointed out a mistake in the reading of the Addit. MS. under Defouille, p. 94, col. I, l. 15, viz: corpora. It stands in the MS. cor A, which should, of course, have been printed as correpta A, as in other cases throughout the volume. In some cases these notes of the compiler will be found to have been omitted when only occurring in the Addit. MS. This is due in a great measure to the fact that the Addit. MS. was used mainly for purposes of collation and filling up gaps. In some cases, too, Latin words occurring in the Addit. MS. have been passed over. This was done sometimes intentionally, on the ground that the difference in spelling was very slight. Occasionally, however, both Mr. Brock and myself have no doubt missed some words which occur only in the Addit. MS., and this is accounted for by the fact that the Latin equivalents in the two MSS. are not given in the same order, so that when many equivalents were given it was an easy matter to miss one or more, in spite of all our care. My business lay mainly with the English words, the Latin equivalents being of secondary importance, though they prove to be of great value to Mr. Hessels for his work. It is to be hoped that some Medi?val Latin Text Society or some German Editor will supplement my work by printing the Addit. MS. in full. Introduction, pp. xv, xvi: my note as to conquestus is all wrong. The inscription simply means in the fifteenth year of the seventh Henry after the Conquest. I was misled by the fact that there had been no Henrys before the Conquest. List of Authorities. The date of Lazamon is misprinted 1305, instead of 1205. I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
