

Michigan History, Vol. 3 (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Michigan History, Vol. 3 Michigan, as a Territory and as a State, has continuously sought, and all the while acquired, advantages for educating the young. Its Pioneer people were ever alive to the benefits resulting from efforts to give the masses all the instruction which their resources would allow. This grand, ennobling desire, having its inception in the early day, has culminated in the permanent establishment of the University, the Agricultural College, the Normal School and our Primary School System; all of which, at the Centennial International Exhibition was commended by people of every nation as Well done. With such a record, the Pioneers may claim that their acts, leading to such results, shall be held in remembrance for the benefit of after ages. We therefore, in presenting the third Volume of Pioneer Collections, desire especially to urge upon our fellow citizens the necessity of continued effort in furnishing to the Committee of Historians, facts and incidents connected with the early history of the Territory and State and the several counties and localities therein; thus strengthening the hope that material so gathered and preserved, will give to the future historian of our Peninsula, all that may be necessary in making up a record that, here in the past, has dwelt a people to be praised for their intelligence and industry, and commended for their virtues. Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to english so forgive me the dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
