

The Littlest Angel in the Choir

~Good things come in small packages.~
Five year old Evelyn loves her family. She loves the cozy log cabin they share. She loves eating homemade dinners at the big wooden table in the kitchen. She loves being able to look out the windows and see the blue waves crashing on the shore. She loves her room with the big, fluffy comforter and all the friendly faced stuffed animals that surround the bed. But most importantly, Evelyn loves staying at home with her mother. Each morning she is greeted with a kiss and a stack of steaming hot pancakes. Then its off to the local grocery store or the bank as they run errands together. Story time is the best with Mother never growing tired of reading the same books over and over again until Evelyn falls asleep. But a phone call one snowy winters night changes everything. The Christmas pageant director is sick, leaving mother in charge of the whole play! A lot of changes are going to have to be made. This scares Evelyn. She liked things just the way they were. The older kids who all have parts in the play are mean to her. She doesnt like being around them and will be happy when it is all over. But when she is asked to sing in the pageant, in front of the whole church, stage fright and self-doubt take over. All she wants is to run back to her bedroom, bury her head under the warm quilt and pretend its not happening. Can Evelyn overcome her fears? Mother thinks so and is counting on her, the littlest angel in the choir, to help save the show.

Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to english so forgive me the dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
