Excerpt from The Registers and Monumental Inscriptions of Charterhouse Chapel The earliest Register of Charterhouse Chapel contains entries of Marriages from 1671 to 1754; of Baptisms from 1695 to 1812; and of Burials from 1695 to 1812. There are also in it a few memoranda of more or less genealogical interest, and entries of two Marriages solemnized respectively in 1837 and 1839. There are four other volumes of Registers. One containing Baptisms from 1813 to the present time, and in this there is an entry of a Marriage solemnized in 1837. In another volume, labelled Marriages, there is only one entry, viz., in 1839. A third is a Register of all Marriages from 1857 to the present time. And the fourth contains all the Burials from 1813 to 1854, when the Burial-ground in Charterhouse was closed. In this Register there are also some later entries relating, chiefly, to the burials of the Poor Brothers who, for the most part, were interred in Bow Cemetery. A set of Marriage Licences, the earliest of which is dated 1671 and the latest 1754, has been collected and bound up in two volumes, forming a valuable addition to the earliest Register. On one of the fly-leaves of the earliest Register is the following: - Memorandum. June 24th, 1702. There was given to the Charterhouse Chappell to be used at the Altar One fine wrought Silver Cup, Double Gilt, with a cover of fine wrought flowered work to it, by Mr. Edward Hooker, Student in Physick, Pensioner of the House. It is stated in Smythes History of Charterhouse, published 1808, that this benefaction was stolen, with other valuables, from the Charterhouse Chapel, in the night of the 4th of September 1797. Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to english so forgive me the dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
