

To Fly Again

A story not easily forgotten, author Rachelle Hasnas, LCSW, has written a stirring memoir recounting the tragic life and subsequent death of her son Joshua precipitated by his mental illness. To Fly Again- Portrait of a BIPOLAR Life is a gripping narrative that courageously dives into the abyss of bipolar disorder. The inclusion of Joshua's poetry provides deeper insight for the reader into the profound anguish he experienced with this oftentimes crippling disease. This book shares the author's tumultuous journey with her son through many years of pain and struggle for both, and finally, her process of dealing with his death. Both her voice of a mother and her voice of a therapist are interwoven in the telling of her son's story. Moreover, To Fly Again goes beyond the life story of Joshua to provide educational material on bipolar disorder by featuring the addition of a final section presenting vital information on this mental illness-to offer hope, help, and healing for others diagnosed with bipolar disorder. An invaluable resource for understanding bipolar disorder for patients and their loved ones, for therapists, and for persons coping with grief and loss.

Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to English so forgive me the Dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
