

Letters to Santa

Over the years, I have received millions of letters from children all over the world. Some made me laugh, some made me cry, and some just left me scratching my head. Some of my favorites came from an area known as the Southern Tier of New York State. Mrs. Claus and I enjoyed many a long and cold night at the North Pole reading these letters. I always looked forward to visiting their homes and tried to fulfill their wishes. Now, I would like to share some of these letters with you. I hope you will enjoy them as much as Mrs. Claus and I did. Hopefully, some of these children may recognize their letters with fond memories. We are looking forward to many future nights in front of our fireplace reading your letters. Love, Santa Claus

Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to english so forgive me the dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
