

HOW TO WRITE A BOOK!: A guide for nonfiction and craft book authors on how to write and publish your eBook for Kindle

Have you got a book in you? Are you hoping to write a book, but it all seems so daunting? Writing and publishing an eBook is not that difficult and you have nothing to lose. This book is aimed at total beginners. This book may also be of particular interest to you if you plan to include images in your book, and therefore especially useful for the budding craft book author. I also include instructions so that you can make your own eBook cover. Writing is a rewarding activity and it is a wonderful feeling to see your book published. An eBook costs virtually nothing to produce and you don't need anything special to get started except a pc and internet access. Many people who could write don't because they can't come up with an idea. My book shows you very simply step-by-step how to get motivated, find ideas, then write, format, publish and promote your non-fiction eBook for Kindle.

Welcome to the blog of Joan le Grande. I'm changing the blog to english so forgive me the dutch articles before. I already translated a few, keeping it up! Anyway, stay tuned for lifestyle articles and reviews about games or other nerdy stuff. Enjoy! I'm super hyped about the VR, but you obviously knew that already because of my last blogpost. There were a few hiccups because I ordered it online and I was working during the time it came. I stressed, freaked, jumped and finally gave up on the thought I got to play on the day it came out. But luck was on my side and when I got home, 20 minutes later the VR glasses arrived! In this post I will take you with me on my first experience with virtual reality. Was it as awesome as I hoped? Or is nauseating and not really my cup of tea? Read and find out!
